

Facebook didn't immediately respond to a request for comment. (Reuters)

Facebook shared personal information culled from its users' profiles with other companies after the date when executives have said the social network prevented third-party developers from gaining access to the data.

That's according to a report published Friday by The Wall Street Journal, which cited court documents, company officials and unidentified people familiar with the matter. Facebook didn't immediately respond to a request for comment.

Get live Stock Prices from BSE and NSE and latest NAV, portfolio of Mutual Funds, calculate your tax by Income Tax Calculator, know market's Top Gainers, Top Losers & Best Equity Funds. Like us on Facebook and follow us on Twitter.