

Members of a regional committee of the Indian Commercial Pilots Associations' (ICPA) have sent a letter to the Union's central committee, saying they had decided not to cooperate with the state-run carrier's management until salaries are paid.