

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has sounded the alarm on 11 public sector banks (PSBs) placed under its prompt corrective action — the term used for lending restrictions on banks with a high level of bad loans and weak capital.