

The ministry of corporate affairs is looking into companies involved in the ICICI Bank controversy of an alleged conflict of interest in bank chief Chanda Kochhar’s dealings with certain borrowers, according to a senior official.