

Markets regulator Sebi and the BSE have put in place new surveillance measures for 75 stocks that belong to companies undergoing the insolvency resolution process.