

The Banks Board Bureau (BBB) has made public its recommendation on the appointment of 22 general managers for selection as executive directors (EDs) of state-run banks in a rare show of transparency in senior-level selection.